

Overview:

ScentSachets are a flexible scent marketing solution ideal for leaving impression-based scent experiences for any industry. Combined with other marketing efforts, they serve as scented reminders of experiences directly related with your brand. Our ScentSachets are self-contained bags filled with high quality fragrance material that retains its smell for up to a week and are available in a variety of ScentAir fragrances.

To help extend your scent marketing efforts, ScentAir also offers custom tag development and the flexibility to select a fragrance to match special events or seasons throughout the year.

Product Features:

- Available in bags of 50 sachets
- Sachet bead in beautiful hand tied organza bags
- Available with custom tags featuring logos or brand messages
- Available in 15 high quality fragrances
